Third Quarter Report

June 30, 2008

A Leading Manufacturer and Distributor of Farm Equipment

Management Discussion & Financial Analysis

Net earnings for the three months ended June 30, 2008 are $4.6 million, up from $1.1 million the prior year. This increases the year to date nine month earnings to $9.4 million vs $2.2 million the year before. In general, the improved profitability is the result of a combination of increased activity in our tractor operations and good cost control.

The 3rd Quarter revenue was up from the prior year by $22.0 million, or 53.9%. This has resulted in a nine month year to date revenue of $145.9 million or 15.8% higher than the prior year. These increases were made despite the depressing effect the weak $US has on our revenue.

Gross profit is up for the current year to 18.6% year to date as a percentage of revenue vs 18.0% for the comparative nine month period last year. This increase is the result of improvements to the production process and cost controls, despite the stress put on margins by the weak US dollar.

Tractor shipments are increasing as our supply chain is catching up to demand. In the prior year, 60% of the tractors shipped that year were made in the first two quarters. As expected, this year, tractor shipments are increasing as the year progresses. Short-line sales are stable in terms of activity, but down as a result of the weakening US dollar.

Selling and administrative expenses are down $496,000 from the prior year. This is not the result of any one particular item, but the sum of small reductions across many accounts. It is indicative of management's ongoing efforts to eliminate redundant expenses and to channel the Company's resources to areas that will do the most good.

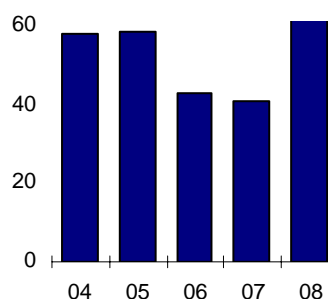

The Company's Balance Sheet is much stronger than last year. The inventory turnover ratio is now 2.0 for the year to date vs 1.5 for the same period last year. The current ratio has improved to 3.2 from 2.9 last year. The Company now has $10.9 million of funds on deposit vs the $9.8 million overdraft position a year ago.

Looking Forward

We will continue our increased focus on the North American market, in order to satisfy the demand for equipment that has resulted from strong commodity pricing in the agricultural markets. We will also continue to build on the success in creating stability with our supply chain in support of attaining our growth targets.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Canada and include the accounts of the Company and all of its subsidiaries, including a 50% joint venture in Bradley Steel Processors Inc., which is accounted for using proportionate consolidation.

(b) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. It is the Company's policy to record provisions for obsolete and slow moving inventory based on management estimates. These estimates are necessarily subject to a degree of measurement uncertainty.

(c) Property plant & equipment and amortization

Capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization and related investment tax credits. Amortization is provided over the estimated useful lives using the following rates and methods:

Buildings	4 to 6.52%	Straight line
Equipment	20 to 30%	Declining balance
Computers	30%	Declining balance
Software and tools	100%	Year acquired
Leaseholds	20%	Straight line

(d) Revenue recognition

The Company records revenue when goods are shipped and legal title passes to the customer. Interest income is recognized as earned.

(e) Investments,

The Company accounts for its investments where significant influence is exercised using the equity method of accounting whereby original costs are increased by the Company's proportionate share of earnings and net of losses, since the date of acquisition and are decreased by dividends received.

(f) Foreign currency translation

The accounts of the United States subsidiaries, which are considered integrated foreign operations, have been translated into Canadian dollars on the following basis:

- 1) Monetary assets and monetary liabilities at the year-end rates of exchange;
- 2) Non-monetary assets and related amortization at rates prevailing at dates of transactions;
- 3) Revenue and expense items, other than amortization, at the average rate for year.

The resulting currency translation gains and losses are included in earnings.

(g) Financial instruments

Foreign exchange and interest rate risk

These are the risks to the Company's earnings that arise from fluctuations in interest rates and foreign exchange rates. The Company does not use any derivative financial instruments to reduce its exposure to interest rate or foreign exchange rate risk.

Other risks

The Company is exposed to credit risk on its accounts receivable. Also, as part of the Company's risk management, the Company will assume some risk in insuring some of its widely held assets.

Fair Value

The carrying values of financial assets and financial liabilities are considered to approximate fair value unless otherwise disclosed.

(h) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian Generally accepted accounting principals requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses, during the year. The more subjective of such estimates is valuation of accounts receivable, inventory, future income tax asset, long term receivables and long term investments. Management believes its estimates to be appropriate; however, actual results could differ from the amounts estimated.
